BULGARS FACING 45,000 OTTOMANS

Fighting Their Way Towards Moslem Capital—Arabs Join Turks.

A BLOODY CONFLICT.

Greek Fleet Bent on Bombarding Constantinople—Ships Delayed—Desperate Battle in Progress.

Vienna, Feb. 5.—The desperate battle between the Turks and Bulgarians in the peninsula fo Galopoli was resumed at sunrise and heavy losses were reported on both sides. Seasoned Turks and Arabs from Asia Minor to the number of 45,000 are engaged, and the Bulgarians encounter greater resistance than they ever had at Chatalja.

The object of Bulgaria's flank movement in Gallipoli is to capture the Dardanelles' fortifications, and open the way for the bombardment of Constantinople by the Greek fleet.

A Sofia dispatch said that all foreigners and noncombatants have left Adrianople. A large part of the Holy City was reported burned.

Sofia, Feb. 5.—The bombardment of Adrianople stopped at 11 o'clock last night, and today the Bulgarian commander, under flag of truce, informed Shurki Pasha, that the cannonading would cease for twenty-four hours.

The respite was given the Turks that they might surrender the Holy City. If they refused to capitulate, firing would be resumed at the expiration of twenty-four hours, when the Bulgarians said they would fire the entire city and burn it up.

One wing of the Bulgarian army today moved up a mile nearer to Adrianople, and the outposts of the enemies now are less that 200 yards apart. If Shukri Pasha refuses to surrender the Bulgarians will make a general assault on the city under cover of siege guns.

BOY'S CONCERT LAST NIGHT.

The Wednesday Night Boy's Club gave its annual entertainment last evening, and the club would like to thank the well filled house which greeted them and which warmly applauded their numbers. The boys sang in good voice, the sextette's ring ing tones sounding clear and strong. The twelve little youngsters representing the months of the year were greeted with enthusiasm, and expounded to each present just why each thought most of their month respectively.

The trio of little fellows singing "They Always Pick on Me," was heartily applauded. The talented child, Talbot Haslett, just six years af oge,sang most remarkably, several selections. His "I'm the Guy." making quite a hit.

French Groves recited well "Little Orphan Annie," always a favorite. And the closing tableaux of Old Black Joe, was well rendered by the entire club.

Born in Patrol Wagon.

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—Starting life in a patrol wagon is the distinction enjoyed by Christan Howard, as he came into the world this morning while the Christan street patrol wagon galloped at full speed toward the hospital.

Guarded King Against Women.

Portsmouth, Eng., Feb. 5.— King George, closely guarded against suffragetes, came here today by special train from London to inspect the new battle cruiser New Zealand, which is the gift to the British navy of the New Zealanders. His majesty went over every part of the ship.

Aboard the special were numerous Scotland Yard detectives. All persons were barred from the station platforms passed by the king's train Extraordinary precautions were taken because of the threat by Mrs. "General" Drummond to seek a personal interview with the King.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Moving picture shows and arson as cause and effect are discussed by Thomas J. Ahern, New York state fire marshal, in his annual report to the legislature. "It has been shown," he says, "that moving pictures have frequently been the occasion of pyromania." He cites instances where persons peculiarly susceptible to suggestion have left these shows to start fires. The remedy, he suggested, is a rigid censorship of films. The report declares that 15,000,000 persons throughout the country daily attend moving picture exhibitions and are "exposed to fires and unbridled displays." The fire loss last year outside of New York City was $12,850,954. "Eighty per cent of the loss," the marshall says, "was due to incendiarism, carelessness or negligence."

An apparatus has been devised in France which, if all that is claimed for it is substantiated, may have an important bearing on the aeroplane as an engine of war. General Hirschauer, of the flying corps, has received a communication from the inventor of the apparatus, Dr. Cousin, a scientist, who has recently been experimenting on this device with Jules Verdines, the aviator. He informs General Hirschauer that the apparatus, which is small and simple and can be carried in a soldier's knapsack, by provoking disturbances of the air will cause any type of aeroplane to capsize even it it has ascended to a height of more than 9,000 feet.

Three men were killed and six seriously injured late yesterday when a 10-ton water gate dropped into a trench where the men were working at Charlevoix and Garland avenues, Detroit, Mich. The injured men were all taken to a hospital and several may die. The trench was being excavated for a 42-inch water main. The gate, supported by heavy timbers,was being lowered into the trench, when, it is claimed, one of the timbers suddenly broke. The workmen were caught practically without warning.

Classes in eugenics for young men and women, with prominent physicians as instructors, weekly dancing classes, billiard and pool tables, and bowling alleys are to be a prominent part in the equipment of the Flatbush New York Congregational Church, according to a progressive program outlined by the pastor, Rev. Louis T. Reed, and adopted at a meeting of about 250 members of the church. There was some surprise and considerable opposition manifested by the more conservative members, but the progressives were too strong, and they carried their point in upholding the pastor in his advanced ideas.

When a mail collector was emptying a mail box in the business section of London last inght the contents burst into flames just as he was about to place them in his leather pouch. The mail matter was entirely destroyed and the mail man's hands were slightly scorched. The outrage is laid to the door of the militant suffragettes. Three suffragettes armed with buckets of paste and big brushes, plastered the facade of Marlboro Police Station with "votes for women" placards and women's social and political proclamations yesterday and then permitted themselves to be arrested. In Bow street police court they refused was given their names ,and the choice was given them of a fine of $5 each or a week in jail. They chose imprisonment.

The Union Presbyterian Church in West Philadelphia was sold at a sheriff's sale Monday to satisfy a judgment obtained by Rev. Alexander Waddell, a former pastor, for back salary, amounting to $6,800. The property, after lively bidding was sold for $7,950, subject to mortgages amounting to $11,600. The purchaser, whose name was not disclosed by his attorney, is said to be a member of the church, who will arrange for the congregation to continue in possession. The edifice was erected five years ago at an expenditure of $31,000.

Miss Anna Hall a member of a prominent Flushing Long, Island, family, is reported to have joined the Salvation Army and deeded over to it valuable property, including her handsome home at Parsons Avenue and Washington Place. The house alone

SAYS MRS. BISHOP IS A DIPSOMANIAC

HER DAILY DRINKS.

She Wants Separation From Banker and $50,000 Alimony—Her Husband Urges Objections.

New York, Feb. 5.—Several affidavits filed with Supreme Court Justice Hendricks by James Cunningham Bishop, banker, in answer to his wife's suit for divorce and alimony, approximating $50,000 a year have been made public, revealing the line of the banker's defense. In the affidavit three neurologists, a trained nurse, and a butcher formerly employed by the Bishops tell of large quantities of alcohol consumed by Mrs. Bishop in the form of whiskey, rye and Scotch and cocktail.

Dr. J. Ramsay Hunt, associate professor of nervous diseases, swore in his affidavit that Mrs. Bishop's condition was such in April, 1910, that it was found necessary to have four trained nurses in charge of her and to keep her locked in her apartments.

Another affidavit was that of Dr. Pearce Bailey, consulting physician for the Manhattan State Hospital for the Insane, who, with Dr. Charles L. Dana, was called into consultation on Mrs. Bishop's case, according to the affidavits on May 31, 1910.

"In view of Mrs. Bishop's excitement and her voilence," he 'swore,and in view of her charges of cruelty and infidelity against her husband, for none of which charges could I find reasonable basis in fact, Dr. Dana and I, on December 22, 1908, signed the medical certificate for special commitment to St. Vincent's Retreat, at Harrison, N. Y. This institution has a special charter for the reception of women whose minds have become unbalanced through inebriety."

Dr. Dana said in his affidavit he had been informed that Mrs. Bishop drank twelve bottles of beer a day, besides gin and cocktails.

Dr. Dana also swore that in his pres ence Mrs. Bishop had spoken bitterly of a "certain lady" to whom she refered as a "blackmailer." Further on in his affidavit he said Mrs. Bishop had told him her husband was trying to get her to sell her stock in a water company to get her "more in his power,", and that Miss Morrow, the trained nurse who went to Egypt with her in 1909, had "entered into an agreement with Mr. Bishop to look for signs of mental disorder while traveling with her.

Edith Morris, the nurse describ-ed in her affidavits alleged hallucinations of which Mrs. Bishop was the victim. She saw imaginary people in the room, according to the nurse, and would beat the walls with shoe trees, while calling to them.

James P. Munroe, the butler, told in his affidavit of serving drinks secretly to Mrs. Bishop, sometimes advancing the money for bottled goods from his own pocket. Prior to the time the four nurses were engaged, he swore she had been drinking as much as a bottle of whiskey a day.

"I left Mrs. Bishop in the fall of 1910. I came back again shortly before her daughters went to Europe. She was drinking a great deal at that time, and during the summer. She did not drink as much whiskey then but drank Martini cocktails. Sometimes she would drink as many as fourteen or fifteen cocktails a day.

"When she returned to New York she continued to drink, but drank principally rye whiskey. I remember in April, 1912, when Mrs. Bishop cracked the panel on Mr. Bishop's room. I had served to Mrs. Bishop a great deal of rye whiskey on that day."

MARRIED.

DAMPER ON RETROCESSION.

Alexandrians Who Have Been Suffering From Going-to-the-District Fever Rush to Cover.

The proceedings in the House of Representatives yesterday by which it was agreed that the District of Columbia is responsible for its $30,000,000 debt is calculated to send a chill down the backs of persons in this city who ever and anon complain of conditions in their home town and sigh to become residents of the District of Columbia.

Such have thoughtlessly imagined that their taxation would be materially reduced were the city to become a part of the territory embraced within the ten square miles of the seat of the federal government. They have often been shown the absurdity of such imaginings, and the action of the House referred to above is an object lesson to such restless characters.

The House adopted tactics which are destined to place upon the taxpayers of Washington entire responsibility for the financial indebtedness, amounting to millions which have been spent in public work.

The House repudiated the half-and-half system in so far as it concerns the funded debt of the Capital city. It means, if the Senate accepts the judgment that future payments on the debt must come soley from District revenues; and further, that the District would be liable for the entire amount already paid, amounting to approximately $30,000,000.

Representative Ben Johnson, of Kentucky, chairman of the District committee, started the movement which brought about the ruling by the House. He has been playing havoc with reforms sought in the District appropriation bill, and yesterday, after he had caused to be eliminated from the measure the item authorizing a new central high school at a proposed cost of $1,200,000, and the item calling for a new M street high school, for colored pupils, at a proposed cost of $550,000, he turned his attention to the District debt.

Mr. Johnson had on his side Representative Roddenbury, who was in the presiding officer's chair, the House being in committee of the whole, Mr. Roddenberry sustained Mr. Johnson's point of order, and the House, when an appeal was taken by Representative Burleson, in charge of the District measure, sustained its chairman.

February 27th, Rev. W. E. Evans, D. D., formerly rector of Monumental Church, Richmond, Va.

SEARCHING FOR HEIRESS.

Young Woman Said to be Interested in Division of Estate in Germany Believed to be in Alexandria.

Chief Goods, of the Police force, has received a communication from David Rothschild,a Washington attorney, asking his aid in the search for Sadie Neurath, who is heir to a small estate left by her grandmother, Mrs. Maxmillian Wagner, in Dossenheim, Amt Heidelberg, Germany. The woman's address is unknown to the lawyer, but he has heard that she is residing somewhere in Alexandria. He suggests that she may be married and is now known under another name. Mr. Rothschild has enclosed a photograph of the missing woman in order to aid the Alexandria police in identifying her if she is in this city.

ALLENS PASSING THROUGH ORDEAL

MEN ARE CHEERFUL.

Today Brought No Relief From Suspense of Condemned or Friends Interceding For Them.

Richmond, Feb. 5.—Another day brought no developments to the little group waiting for the word from Governor Mann that will mean life or death to Floyd Allen and Claude Swanson Allen. It was supposed that the Governor was engaged in preparation of his statement to the public regarding final disposition of the case, but he gave no indication as to when it would be ready.

Miss Nellie Wissler, Claude's sweetheart, who has stood by him from the day the shooting in the Hillsville courthouse startled the civilized world, spent part of yesterday in the death row with Claude. With her was Victor Allen, and the two men in the shadow of the electric chair, with the 2 visitors, and talked again and again of the scenes in the courthouse in Carroll and of the people and the country that the men behind the bars may never see again.

The Allens, facing the electric chair, bear up wonderfully well. Floyd Allen keeps cheerful, and is always pleasant when spoken to, either by Keeper Penn or by the few visitors—attorneys and relatives—who are allowed. The older man occupies the cell nearest the window on the left, next to that of Harvey D. Looney, who alone of the four men in the death row is in luck, since he has secured a writ of error from the Supreme Court, and may possibly get a new trial.

"Old man Floyd" reads a little, with some difficulty, and talks a good deal. Claude is not always so communicative. His situation preys on him some times. Still, he is always courteous, and, like his father, is desirous of making as little trouble for everybody as possible.

Nearly every day some Richmond friend sends flowers for the death tier, their freshness heartening the prisoners a good deal.

Miss Wissler sits for hours just in front of Claude's cell, and they talk through the bars. They have no moment to themselves, since the death watch is always present, but is as considerate as is possible.

The four Allens who escaped with their lives are at work in the big prison. Sidna Allen is employed as a carpenter, at which avocation he is fairly proficient, working at the trade during his stay at Des Moines, prior to his arrest. Suave and plausible, he gets along well with the guards.

Shoemaking is the employment of the other three—Friel Allen, Wesley Edwards and Sidna Edwards. The latter, a big, good-natured fellow, is not always well, his nervousness interfering with his employment to a large extent. He had but just recovered from an attack of fever when the Hillsville shooting occurred, and since that time he has been incarcerated.

Friel Allen, the brightest and quickest of them all, is smart with his work, doing it well. He gives no trouble, Wesley Edwards, with the shifty eyes and untrustworthy mouth, is also making shoes for the Thacher people. He makes no comment to his associates on Miss Iroler, who married another man soon after he confessed to murder and accepted his sentence of twenty-seven years in State prison.

ALLEN SYMPATHIZERS.

Talk of Bringing Court Clerk Dexter Goad to Trial.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 5.—It is believed probable, that as a last resort, those fighting for commutation for Floyd and Claude Allen propose to bring about the arrest and trial of Dexter Goad, clerk of the circuit court of Carroll county,and that this will be effected by a warrant sworn out by Victor Allen, who, with Miss Nellie Wissler, still remains at Richmond.

It is currently reported among certain Allen sympathizers that the trial jury which convicted Sidna Allen at Wytheville toko a straw vote on the question of the guilt or innocence of Dexter Goad after Sidna Allen's trial, and that a majority of the members of that jury were of the opinion that Goad, under indictment, would be found guilty by them.

It is believed by many of those who petitioned Governor Mann for the commutation of the two Allen sentences that should Dexter Goad be placed on trial, his excellency would await the outcome of that prosecution before finally acting upon the question of modifying the Allen sentences.

An agitation for the arrest and trial of Goad was started some time ago, but it was not pushed to conclusion. It is held by some of those sympathizing with Claude and Floyd Allen that the arrest and trial of Goad might bring out evidence heretofore undeveloped, which might result in material benefit to the Carroll county clansmen. They also believe that the trial of Goad would serve to temporarily, at least, induce the governor to postpone action and allow him a longer time for consideration, together with affording him the benefit of evidence which so far has not been presented.

It is very probable that Governor Mann will not make known his determination in the Allen case before early next week, as a rush of work has fallen upon his excellency, much of which demands immediate attention. The executive's desk is piled high with records and petitions bearing upon the trials and history of Claude and Floyd Allen, all of which are receiving the most serious and earnest attention.

DEMOCRATS FAVOR AN INCOME TAX

MAY BE FORESTALLED.

Unless Congress Acts First, The General Assembly Will Obey the Democratic Convention.

Richmond, Feb. 5.—Leading Democrats expressed the opinion yesterday that unless Congress at the coming extra session or early in the next regular session passed an act putting the Federal income tax in operation, the Virginia Legislature will certainly add its voice for ratification at the session next January. That is, this State will act favorably on the matter regardless of the fact that a sufficient number of States, has already been secured, unless Congress forestalls Virginia by actually putting the new method of taxation in operation.

Sentiment among the Democrats of this state is so overwhelming in favor of the income tax, that the Democratic State Convention held in Norfolk last May unanimously passed a resolution indorsing the amendment to the Constitution, and directing the Legislature to ratify it.

The amendment was first presented to the Legislature of 1910. It meet strong opposition led by Speaker Byrd. Appeals were made to the memories of the past, and Federal inquisition was advanced against ratification, so that the House rejected the proposition. The Senate later passed a resolution of ratification.

In the session of 1912, a resolution was offered, but never came to a vote.

Considering the Norfolk resolution, and the fact that the income tax has been part of the Democratic national platforms for more than twenty years, it is believed Virginia will add one to the list of approving States next January.

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria-- Happenings in Society.

Mrs. T. Marshall Jones entertained most cleverly at six-hand euchre at her residence in Prince street. The house decorations were white and green, the flowers being water lilies and the rays of light from the gas jets fell through the soft green and the white water lilly globes—the lighted tapers along the walls and mantels also shedding a soft warm glow over the pretily gowned guests. Mrs. Jones wore a handsome toilet of black jet and her radiant smile bespoke an evening of mirth and jolliay. Assisting Mrs. Jones were her daughters, Mrs. Harry Beverly, in a daintily draped hand-painted chiffon robe over white satin with corsage of Duchess lace which set off her girlish beauty, and Miss Anne Lewis Jones in a becoming picturesque gown of garnet messaline, brightened by folds of pink.

As the guests descended the stairs they were met by a trio or Alexandria's fairest buds, Miss Cora Jones, Miss Sophie Tackett, and Miss Julia Nicol, who saw that each guest was duly presented a dear little Dutch tally-card. The prize for the highest score, a half dozen bread and butter plates in water lily design, was won by Mrs. Thomas B. Cochran. The booby prize, a hand painted Dutch Picture with amusing mottoes, fell to Mrs. Frank Harper, winning on the cut from Miss Olive Lyon. The consolation prize, a stein, of pleasing pattern, was won by Mrs. Geo. L. Evans.

At the close of the game the ladies were ushered into the most attractively arranged dining room, where the table, bearing ample brass baskets overflowing with buds and blooms of water lillies greeted the eye. Yellow ribbon candy, festooned about the beaten brass shaded candles, wound in and out among the substantial Dutch goodies. Then another prize was brought forth hid in the heart of a paper made lily and resting upon its foliage, ready for the best guesser as to the contents within. Mrs. Albert Bryan was the lucky winner and the lily petals, when opened, revealed an Edam cheese.

As the goodly courses of a Dutch supper were served, speeches, toasts, and original verse replies to Mrs. Jones' unique form of invitation, were in accordance. Amusement at its highest pitch reigned and spoke one of the toasts most truly.

One felt that the last party of the season was the most festive of all.

The guests enjoying Mrs. Jones' jovial hospitality were Mrs. Albert Bryan, Mrs. Clarence Leadbeater, Mrs. Harry Burke, Mrs. Frank Harper, Mrs. Hugh McGuire, Mrs. John Foster, Mrs. William B. Smoot, Mrs. Emmett Dunn, Mrs. Ramidge, Mrs. Edward Kemper, Mrs. Charles Nicol,

LAST NIGHT'S CONCERT

The concert given last night at the Young People's Building under the auspices of Martha Washington Chapter, No. 42. O. E. S., was a decided success in every way. The hall was filled to its capacity with an appreciative audience which thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful and well rendered program. The artists of the evening were Miss Bertie Thompson, the well known Washington soprano soloist, whose singing always charms the audience. Miss Ruby Stanford, of Washington, whose "Adagio" by Reis, and "Mazurka" by Wieniawski, were delights to her hearers. Mr. Harry S. Kennedy, of Washington presided at the Pianola and Victrola. His selections on the pianola were played with much expression, and Mr. Arthur Pierce, of Washington, well known to Alexandria audiences sang in his inimitable style several comic songs. As always he was enthusiastically received. The accompanists were Mr. Edwin Fewell and Mr. Byron Blodgett.

The well arranged program follows:

Row in Engine House Last Saturday Evening Culminates in Cutting

The case of Marshall Cheshire, arrested yesterday on the charge of attacking William F. Webster with a knife at he Columbia engine house last Saturday afternoon, came up in the Police Court this morning. Cheshire had left $10 collateral for his appearance when taken in custody.

Webster, in his statement, alleged he went into the back room of the Columbia engine house about five o'clock Saturday afternoon and passed through the back door into the yard. Upon his return he was unable to open the door, as there was no knob on the outside, and he knocked for some one to turn the knob on the inside. He alleged that Cheshire, applying a vile epithet, suggested that Webster be made to remain outside. When Webster finally entered the place he laid his hand upon Cheshire's head and observed, "You're always after somebody." Cheshire, according to the complainant, then started to attack him, and one of the men in the room at the time said, "Lookout Webster, he's after you." Before Cheshire could be stopped he slashed Webster on the left side of the neck, opening the skin for several inches and splitting the front of his overcoat.

Two witnesses corroborated Webster's statement.

Cheshire subsequently took the stand. He alleged that Webster first used vile language towards him and struck him.

CHURCH SERVICES TODAY.

Ash Wednesday is Observed in Catholic and Episcopal Churches.

The solemn season of Lent was ushered in this morning by Ash Wednesday services which were held at the Catholic and Epicopal Churches of Alexandria.

At St. Mary's Catholic Church there were two services this morning. At 6:30 o'clock there was the first mass and at 8:30 the second mass which was followed by the blessing and distribution of the holy ashes. Tonight at 8 o'clock there will be another solemn service when the exercises of the Holy Way of the Cross, followed by the blessing of the holy sacrament, will take place.

At Grace Episcopal Church, Holy Communion was celebrated this morning at 7:30 a. m., and at 10:30 there was morning prayer and sermon by the rector, Rev. Edgar Carpenter. Evening prayer and address will take place tonight at 7:30 p. m.

At St. Paul's and Christ Episcopal Churches there were morning prayer and sermon at 11:00 a. m.

ACCIDENT TO COLORED MAN.

Joseph Spottswood, colored, employed at the roundhouse of the Southern Railway in this city, was seriously burned while at work about three o'clock this morning. Spottswood was carrying a torch, the blaze from which set fire to his overalls, and before he could subdue the flames he was badly burned. He was removed to his home on South Henry street where he received surgical attention.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

FIRE IN A HOTEL.

Forty Guests Rush to Street And Flames are Soon Extinguished.

Suffolk, Va., Feb. 5. — Yesterday morning at 2:30 o'clock fire was discovered in the Brittain Hotel in the business section of Suffolk. Over 40 guests of the hotel rushed to the street in their night clothes. The fire was soon extinguished with small damages. The fire was of incendiary origin, a large quantity of kerosene being poured on the rear door where the flames ate through.

ACCIDENT TO OFFICIAL.

Vice-President Suffers Fractured Collarbone in Runaway at Petersburg.

Driving with his daughter Mr. Hamilton was thrown from his carriage. Miss Hamilton was also slightly injured. They were removed to their home after the accident.

Campbell-Woods Wedding.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 5.—The Church of the Centurion, Fort Monroe, Va., was the scene yesterday afternoon of a beautiful wedding, when Miss Lucille Chapman Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Meredith Woods, became the wife of Lieut. Levin Hicks Campbell, Jr., U. S. A. Chaplain William Scott, pastor of the church, officiated.

Mr. Worthington Campbell, of New York, brother of the groom, was best man. Preceding the bride was her sister, Miss Clotilde Woods, as maid of honor, and Miss Louise Holiday Campbell, sister of the groom, and Miss Dorothy Moore, of New York.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Chamberlain Hotel. A large number of out-of-town guests were present.

DEATH OF REV. J. B. CHAIGHILL

Deceased Clergyman Served Through The War as Confederate Soldier.

Rev. James B. Craighill, an Episcopal clergyman, died yesterday at his residence, 3062 Q Street, N. W., Washington.

Dr. Craighill was born at Charlestown, W. Va., July 28, 1838. In 1860 he entered Virginia Theological Seminary, but left the institution a year later to espouse the cause of the Confederacy. He served throughout the war being detailed first to Stonewall Jackson's brigade, and later with Nelson's battery. At the cessation of the strife he returned to study, and was ordained in 1868. He was a brother of the late Brigadier General William P. Craighill, U. S. A. He is survived by his wife, three sons, the Rev. Francis H. Craighill, of Wytheville, Va., James Rutherford Craighill, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and G. Bowdoin Craighill, of Washington, and a daughter, Miss Susan R. Craighill. The remains will be interred in Eastville, Va.

ALLEGED DOUBLE TAX.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 5.—Abolition of the double tax now assessed against gas consumers will probably be considered by the Council Committee on Utilities.

Gas consumers now pay 90 cents a thousand feet for gas. Gas consumers pay their regular city taxes, and, in addition, the tens of thousands of dollars a year which the city makes from the sale of gas.

It is proposed to reduce the price to 75 cents, which will still more than pay the expenses of the plant and at the same time alleviate the burden now borne by the consumers.

VIRGINIA HEIRS SEEK ESTATE.

Women Urge Claim on Lord Baltimore's Property.

Covington, Va., Feb. 5.—Engaged in the fight of the Calvert heirs to recover a vast fortune, consisting of lands and money, valued at millions of dollars, the heritage left them by the distinguished progenitor of the family in America, Lord Baltimore (Calvert), which has resolved itself into an issue, attracting nation-wide interest, are Mrs. J. M. Perry and Mrs. M. B. Harlow, of Covington, and Mrs. G. M. Robertson, of Clifton Forge.

The claimants are direct descendants of the famous English nobleman, and are actively engaged in the concerted effort of all the heirs in America to regain property, in and around Baltimore, claimed as a part of his estate, which through the terms of his will has remained intact for a century.

The estate involved passed into the hands of King James I., of England, through a will drawn in his favor in the seventeenth century. It was bequeathed to Lord Baltimore Calvert, at that time a great favorite of the reigning soverign.

HEALTH ALMANAC.

State's Anual Compendium of Public Health Now Available for Distribution.

Following the custom set in 1911, when the State published the first health almanac issued in this country, this year's almanac contains a compendium of the fundamental principles of disease prevention, with special paragraphs on the more familiar communicable diseases. These are arranged in the forms of monologues with added sections describing the various diseases discussed and outlining the precautions to be taken. The health proverbs which have always been a feature of the almanac are given this year in large numbers and are supplemented with brief directions for good health on the farm.

The Board of Health has ordered 30,000 of these almanacs which will be sent to the general mailing list of the Board, to the newspapers of the state and to exchanges in other states. The demand for the almanac, which last year included requests from Canada, Europe, Madagascar, and Australia, is expected to be equally large this year. Copies will be sent upon request to the State Board of Health.

Blacksnake Guards Farm.

Luray, Va., Feb. 5.—An eight-foot blacksnake, as big as a man's arm, has been keeping watch over F. Z. Griffith's plantation, near Luray, for several years.

The snake has kept the premises unusually free of rats since taking up its abode on Mr. Griffith's farm. Its accustomed place is in the barn, and it has frequently been caught devouring grown chickens.

The neighborhood is kept in dread, and mothers watch their offspring as if they were in a South African boa-constrictor territory.

Charges Against Lawyer.

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 5.—The Roanoke Bar Association yesterday morning took the initiative in the prosecution of W. W. Kelley, a local attorney, by requesting Judge Staples, of the Corporation Court, to issue a rule citing Kelley to appear and show cause why he should not be disbarred from the practice of law in Virginia.

The bar association named Judge R. C. Jackson, and R. H. Willis to prosecute Mr. Kelly, who is charged with not making the proper returns of funds collected for clients. Judge Staples agreed to issue the rule.

We have been telling you for many days that some morning you would wake up and find it sleeting and raining and generally disagreeable and also discover that you had noot heeded the warning and fortified yourself against it. DEATH OF DR. CARRINGTON.

Secretary of Grand Lodge of Masons Passes Away at Ripe Age.

Richmond, Feb. 5.—Dr. George W. Carrington, grand secretary of the Masons of Virginia, died yesterday morning at his home, 302 south Fourth street, after an illness of about three weeks. Death was ascribed to the infirmities of old age.

Dr. Carrington was eighty-three years old. He removed to Richmond from Rustburg, Campbell county, in 1896, following his election as grand secretary of the Masons in Virginia. Since then he has been a constant resident of the city.

He was a member of one of the best-known Virginia families and he had a wide family connection both in and out of the Old Dominion.

During the interim to the selection of Dr. Carrington's successor, Charles A. Nesbit will be acting secretary of the Masons in Virginia.

The funeral of Dr. Carrington will be conducted tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock from Grace Episcopal Church by the Grand Lodge, Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Virginia. The remains will be interred in Hollywood Cemetery with all Masonic rites.

MAY LOSE HER POSITION.

Richmond, Feb. 5.—Wanda Kelly, a telephone girl, operates the private branch exchange at the Keswick Hotel. Because she has refused to divulge information which passed over the wire efforts have been made to bribe her. The information is of an intensely delicate and personal nature. It involves the good name of a woman against whom there has been no breath or suspicion. The little telephone girl—for she is scarcely more than a child—has indignantly repulsed those who would bribe her. Efforts are now being made to have her discharged.

It is claimed that she is not a "practical operator." Information was wanted. A man desired a call put through at once. The telephone girl because she knew the man, refused to give him the number he desired. She has tried to save a woman's reputation. She has repulsed bribery; she has withstood brutal threats. Now is her means of livelihood to be taken from her? Is she to lose her job? Is she to be fired?

The fifty operators from the central exchange will hear all the evidence and argument in the matter Friday night and Saturday afternoon. Certain girls—probably about twenty—will then be designated to write Wanda Kelly's fate. They will say whether, in their judgment, she should have refused to give the number desired; whether an operator should be an automaton or a woman; whether the reputation of a woman is more important, under certain conditions, than a telephone connection—in short, whether Wanda Kelly was right or wrong and whether she should lose her position.

These fifty girls will be selected from among the operators who have been in service two years and longer.

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this:
Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.
WASH THEM OUT!
A simple wash of Witch Hazel, Glycerine, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.
A 50 cent bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.
We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin sufferer here and there, and we want you to try it now on our positive pay guarantee. D.D.D. Soap keeps the pores clean; ask us.

Beginning with Ash Wednesday today the next four weeks will bring an unusual number of "special occasions." Next Sunday is the anniversary of Jefferson Davis's election to the presidency of the Confederacy. Tomorrow one week is Abraham Lincoln's birthday anniversary. Two days later, on Friday the fourteenth, beaux and belle will exchange the sentiment laden missives that always go with the feast of good Saint Valentine. On the next day comes the anniversary of the destruction of the Battleship Maine in Havana harbor and one week later the country will celebrate the birthday of the Immortal George. Coming as the crowning event of the series will be March 4, Inauguration Day—exactly one month from yesterday—when Woodrow Wilson will become the head of the nation, the first Democratic president in 20 years.

RENEWAL OF THE WAR AGAINST TURKEY.

Dispatches from European capitals corroborate the reports sent yesterday to the effect that the Balkan allies have again turned loose the dogs of war. The Turks deny that Scutari has fallen into the hands of their enemies, although it is asserted as a fact in advices from some cities. It is generally believed that the countries now in arms against their common enemy are determined to fight to a finish, and that Adrianople will not satisfy their avariciousness but that eventually they will invest Constantinople with the aid of the Greek warships.

The outcome of the conference of envoys in London was presaged from the beginning—the allies wanted war, not peace—and Hague Tribunal imaginings were thrown to the wind by the allies, who have been preparing for years to throw off the yoke of the Porte.

The larger nations of Europe are standing aside and viewing the battle from afar, and when the belligerents shall have exhausted themselves and are in positions to be unable to hold the territory they may conquer, the more powerful countries will step in and divide the spoils.

The fable of the lion and bear fighting over the carcase of a deer is often applicable. When both animals were hors de combat, a fox walked up and carried off the prize.

President's Reception.

The President and Mrs. Taft held the last of the state receptions last evening, the officers of the army and navy being the guests of honor, and a more brilliant event could not have been chosen for the closing social feature of an administration.

FINANCIAL POLICY OF ALEXANDRIA.

(Communicated.)

Editor Gazette:

For many years prior to 1902 the City Council vigorously pursued the policy of making no "appropriations for other than absolutely necessary purposes." In their estimates "no sum was added for streets or sewers" or for additional facilities for our schools.

As a result of this policy of false economy, our streets became a byword and a reproach; modern sanitary conditions were impossible owing to lack of sewers; a grand jury condemned our school buildings; the court threatened the City Council for the condition of the City Jail; our assessed values were steadily decreasing, and with decreasing values went decreasing revenue, or else a higher rate; building practically ceased, modern buildings without modern conveniences being plainly impracticable; our parents, wherever practicable, were sending their children to the Washington schools; our mechanics and laborers found no employment at home.

Who then were benefited by the policy of making "no appropriations for other than absolutely necessary purposes?" Was it our bondholders?

In 1896 they sold their bonds to the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund at 88; in 1897 they accepted 86; in 1899 they were glad to take 90; in 1900 they got 98 and 98 1-2, in 1901 they accept. ed 97. In the fiscal year 1902 our public debt amounted to the sum of $796,300.00; and the city's assets to the sum of $322,900.00, and excess of liabilities over assets of $473,000.00. During that year the city received from taxes the sum of $86,777.00; from miscellaneous sources the sum of $28,393.45; and made a "temporary loan" of $4,000.00, making the total receipts $119,170.46.

In the year 1902 the City Council was working under the slightly changed policy of making no "appropriations for other than absolutely necessary purposes (including streets, sewers and schools.)"

Since 1902 the city and its citizens have expended approximately $300,000.00 upon streets and sewers; and approximately $70,000.00 upon its schools, jails, gas works and other public property.

What has been the result?

In 1912 the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund paid the bondholders 100. The public debt including a "temporary loan" of $25,000.00 was $782,000.00 the city assets were $465,000.00, the excess of liabilities $317,000.00 or $156,400.00 less than it was in 1902.

The receipts from taxes were $108,312.75 and from miscellaneous source 312.75 a total of $153,562.82 or $38,392.36 greater than it was in 1902.

The physical result is apparent to all. Our citizens generally are beginning to hope for better conditions, for better homes, for better schools. They are ready and willing to contribute their share towards attaining these objects. Shall we let slip the present opportunity? Once gone, gone for perhaps another decade. Is it harder for the present Council to continue the splendid progress of the past ten years than it was for the Council of 1902 to begin. The Council made a notable record in 1912; will conditions justify it in returning to the policy of no "appropriations for other than absolutely necessary purposes" which prevailed prior to 1902?

Yours truly,
JAMES BAYNE.

LOVE OF APPLAUSE.

(Communicated.)

The heart of man seeks for sympathy, and each of us craves a recognition of his talents and his labors. But this craving is in danger of becoming morbid, unless it be constantly kept in check by calm reflection on its vanity, or by dwelling upon the very different and far higher motives which should actuate us. That man has fallen into a pitiable state of moral sickness, in whose eyes the good opinion of his fellow-men is the test of merit, and their applause the principle reward for exertion is apparent.

The business interests of our city are found in the advertising columns of this paper. No more stable houses or responsible men can be found in the world; no better class of goods—high or low priced—is handled in the United States, and considering the convenience, no cheaper city in this country in which to purchase. Surely you will find clerks and porters as courteous as any in the land. These merchants have invested large amounts of money to get just what you want and, in price, they defy competition.

Now it is up to those who have an interest in our city and want to maintain creditable houses—which is for their convenience—to purcahse from them and encourage them to still further improve their business interests. They employ hundreds of Alexandrias and are a great help to the city. If it is possible to get what you want—and it generally is—buy it from an Alexandria merchant.

ELKS DANCE LAST NIGHT.

More Than Seventy-Five Enjoy Pre-Lenten Function.

The last of the entertainments in Alexandria previous to the commencement of Lent and one of the most brilliant dances this season was the one given by the Elks Dancing Club last night in the home of the order on Prince street. There were more than seventy-five couples present including a number of out-of-town guests and they enjoyed to the utmost the good time which had been provided.

Dancing commenced at nine o'clock and the program was not completed until after midnight when a special car was in readiness to take the visitors from Washington back to their homes.

The music was excellent, an orchestra of six pieces being provided and a vocalist accompanied the other musicians during a number of the dances. The selections were particularly good, the latest musical hits being on the program.

At 11:30 a delicious buffet supper, consisiting of salads, sandwiches, punch and coffee, was served in the rathskeller.

The committee in charge of the dance was Charles B. Marshall, chairman; Harry B. Quinn George W. Bontz George T. Caton, Herman Friedlander, E. Stewart Smith, Joseph Ewald and Jerome Kaufmann.

COST OF STRIKE.

Clothing Manufacturers and Employes In New York Still Apart.

More than one-tenth of the annual output of men's and youths' ready-made clothing, amounting to $20,000,000, it is estimated, has been lost in New York as the result of the strike that has been waged by the United Garment Workers of America since December 30.

The loss in wages to the workmen is between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000. This does not include the losses in the other garment strikes.

From all indications the general strike of the men garment workers will be continued for at least another week. An absolute rejection yesterday on the part of 12,000 employes in the boys' clothing industry of a proposal for a 10 per cent. increase in wages support this belief.

The proposal made by the United Manufacturers' Association more than a week ago, including provision for a 52-hour week and an increase in wages from 5 to 10 per cent. will be voted on by the cutters today. Much doubt is expressed as to whether the tailors and operators would ever vote on the proposal. The union officials said, however, that the vote would be taken some time in the future. bout 50,000 strikers will be affected by the result of this ballot.

Settlements in the kimono and wrapper and the white goods strike it was said, were pending. It is understood that the basis of agreement will be a flat 10 per cent. increase in wages.

Charge Against Beach.

Frederick O. Beach, society man and exquisite, realized with a shock in Aiken, S. C., yesterday the deadly seriousness of the case which the State of South Carolina has built up against him on the charge of murderous assault upon his wife. The case, which was to have been laughed out of court, must be fought in bitter earnestness to the end. From the group of mysterious circumstances surrounding the brutal assault upon pretty Mrs. Beach on the night of February 26 last City Solicitor Gunter has massed an array of circumstantial facts which have carried many a man to jail. And the state is not yet through. A trial which was to have been swept clear of the docket at a single session has gone over to another day, with the prosecution still at work piling up details for the consideration of the jury. A hint of the nature of the defense came today during cross-examination of one of the prosecution's strongest witness when Judge Henderson, chief of the Beach legal forces, uncovered the broken trail of a heavy-booted man leading irregularly from the scene of the assault through a main-traveled street down to the railroad cut, 300 yards back of the Beach cottage, where it was lost in the cinder-strewn roadbed. The man who made these tracks, it was said by the defense, was the negro who struck Mrs. Beach down.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Senator Martin is busily engaged today in drafting an amendment which he will introduce in the Senate tomorrow which has for its ultimate purpose the building of a memorial bridge across the Potomac River and also to construct a government road between Washington and Mount Vernon, to be known as Mount Vernon Avenue.

This amendment the senior Senator will try to have made a part of the military appropriation bill, when it comes up on the floor of the Senae for consideration. The House Commitee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, before which Mr. Carlin's bridge bills as well as those introduced by Representatives Cooper and McCall, will not take any action on them at this session. But the members of Congress from Virginia, in view of the impetus which the Lincoln Memorial has given this proposition, do not intend to wait until the next Congres to get an appropriation to construct a bridge across the Potomac. They say that the time to act is now and both Senators Martin and Swanson are going to do their utmost to have the amendment made a part of the military appropriation bill.

Senator Swanson today favorably reported to the Senate from the Committe on Library, Senator Martin's bill to erect a statue to the late John Marshall, first chief justice of the United States, in the building occupied by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals at Richmond. Senator Martin's bill appropriates the sum of $15,000 for the erection of the statue. It is to be placed in a niche especially made for the purpose in the court room of the federal building.

In his report to the Senate, Senator Swanson gives some interesting facts concerning the life of Chief Justice Marshall. He states in his report that Richmond is a fitting city in which to erect a statue to him for it was there that he spent 53 years of his life. He was also a member of Congress from Richmond district in 1799 and later secretary of state under President Adams, facts not generally known by the reading public. The Virginia senators hope to have the bill passed at the present session.

Senator-elect James H. Brady, of Idaho, former governor, has arrived in Washington and is ready to enter on the duties of his office. He will take the oath in a day or two. He will allow time for his predecessor Senator Perkq, to close up certain business matters. Mr. Brady is a Republican, and a standpatter.

A voluminous brief setting forth reasons why Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell, and Frank Morrison, officers of the American Federation of Labor, should serve jail sentences for alleged contempt of court was filed in the District Court of Appeals today by the "committee of prosecutors."

Struck by a switching engine near the K street tower in the Terminal yards this morning, Elmer Mattingly, his government, Brigadier General the Washington Terminal Company was instantly killed.

After a life full of adventure and achievement honored in the service of a steam inspector in the employ of James Allen, chief signal officer of the United States Army, will on February 13, retire from active service, and go back to live the remainder of his life at his boyhood home in LaPorte, Ind.

THE TEST THAT TELLS.

Is The Test of Time. Many Alexandria People Have Made This Tet.

Years ago this Alexandria citizen told in a public statement the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills.

The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Can any Alexandria reader demand more convincing proof? It's Alexandria testimony—it may be investigated.

Mrs. Anine Scott, 110 Prince street, strong friend to Doan's Kidney Pills Alexandria, Va., says: "I am the same today, as I was in 1910 when I publicly told of the cure they had made for me. This cure has been lasting, but I occasionally use Doan's Kidney Pills as a preventive. I had pains in my back and I could not rest well. In the morning I always felt tired and worn out, and I also had dizzy spells. Doan's Kidney Pills did such good world that it is a pleasure to recommend them to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's and take no other. 2.

METHODISTS SUSTAIN BOARD.

Declare Reading of Bible in Public Schools Will be a Blessing.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 5.—Methodist ministers in this city are standing for the action of the City School Board in directing that the Bible shall be daily read in the public schools, having met Monday and adopted the following paper, signed by the Rev. Ernest L. Stevens, president, and R. M. White, secretary:

As ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, representing a membership in this city of more than 10,000 and a constituency of many more, we desire to express our belief in one of the fundamental doctrines of this nation, religious liberty, and to state that we would not, therefore, force our religious beliefs upon any person or class of persons; we also believe that "no free government, or the blessing of liberty can be preserved to any people, but by firm adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, frugality and virtue," and that "it is the mutual duty of all to practice Christian forbearance, love and charity towards each other.'

And believing, furthermore, that besides its value as a religious book the Bible, more than any other book in existence teaches these cardinal virtues, and that it would be a blessing to our state and nation if every one learned these virtues as set forth in the greatest book of ethics, though all might not accept the religious doctrines, and feeling assured that the real power which has made our State and Nation what it is today is the influence of the Bible, we therefore commend the action of the City School Board in requesting that the Bible be read in the public schools of the city, that their action instead of being the warm feeling of sectarian prejudice is rather a spirit of patriotism that would gladly develop in every child in the school, regardless of religious tenets held by him, a high and honorable citizen, a credit to his home and an honor to his state.

Indicted as Firebug.

Smithfield, Va., Feb. 5.—George P. Rouse, who was for some time a successful merchant here, has been indicted in the Circuit Court of Isle of Wight county on the charge of setting fire to six local business houses which were destroyed about the middle of December of last year.

Rouse's mental condition at the time of the fires may be recalled at the trial, which will probably take place the latter part of this month. An effort has been made to have him sent to a state institution for treatment.

The alleged firebug attempted to butt his brains out against the walls of his cell in the county jail here Jan. 5, and was found in an unconscious condition. Dr. R. L. Seward was summoned and took several stitches in the would-be suicide's head.

The fire loss entailed by the incendiarism amounted to $30,000, the Bank of Smithfield, the Home Telephone offices and the Folkes Insurance Company offices being among the structures burned.

It is alleged that Sheriff Edwards and Sergeant J. R. Moore arrested Rouse as he was in the act of setting fire to an Italian shoe shop.

is worth $30,000. It is situated in the aristocratic section of the town, and it is said it will be used by the Salvation Army as its headquarters in Flushing.

Of a fund of $618,000 which Southern Baptists have agreed to raise for foreign missions during the year ending May 1, next, $154,000 has been collected, according to reports made yesterday at the first laymen's missionary convention of Southern Baptists now in session at Chattanooga. Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, Md., is president of the session, and about 1,000 delegates are present.

A bomb thrown at the civil governor of Foochow, China, yesterday, killed twenty bystanders, but the governor escaped uninjured. At once the governor dashed at his would-be assassin and with the aid of others succeeded in arresting him.

Mrs. Guy Reichtmyer killed two of her children and herself in Lebanon, Mo., early yesterday. One of the children was 5 years old, and the other 2. A daughter, 16 years old, was to have been married yesterday.

Eugene Fox, the self-confessed graft-collecting policeman, who will tell the extraordinary grand jury of graft levied by the police in Harlem, made a confession to the district attorney yesterday, supplementary to the one he made Monday, in which he figures he handled $75,000 in five years, most of which he says, went to certain superiors in the department. Ten per cent of his collections, Fox told the prosecutor, he retained for himself. The rest was divided between his captain and men who represented the inspector responsible for his precinct.

After maintaining his innocence throughout nine hours of a relentless "third degree," in New York, John Paul Farrell, a janitor, fifty-three years old, confessed to constructing and placing the bomb which exploded and killed Mrs. Bernard Herrera Sunday night, also the bomb which killed Miss Grace Walker a year ago and the bomb which exploded six weeks later in the library of Judge Otto Rossalsky and seriously injured an officer of the Department of Combustibles who had been sent to open it.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back Again by The Use of Cardui.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardui as a tonic, and, from the first day, it seemed to help.

I had almost lost my reason, but, thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it."

Cardui acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health.

It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical.

Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardui.

The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways.

Try it.

As frost to the bud, and blight to the blossom, even such is self interest to friendship, for confidence cannot dwell where selfishness is porter at the gate. Just so with footwear, you want confidence in the seller and you want it confirmed by the wear of the article. Experience has proven that Marshall keeps on hand the best, and does not recommend them beyond what the wear proves.

SHOW A LIBERAL EDUCATION.

In these days an times every man and woman should know something about automobiles even if they do not own one. The best way to secure a lot of valuable information on this subject is to visit an automobile show where the various models can be seen.

AUTOMOBILE SHOW GREAT SUCCESS

CONCERTS A FEATURE.

Fine Lot of Cars, Trucks and Accessories Are Shown. Show is a Liberal Education—Society Day.

Splendid crowds at the auto show in the Convention Hall, Washington, last night, testified to the great interest manifested by the public in the splendid display of automobiles. There is a big display of nearly all cars of up-to-date models equipped with the latest appliances, a number of cars show the actual operation of the new features, which make the automobile of the 1913 model one of the easiest riding, safest and most easily operated cars machines jet produced by the manufacturers.

The largest and one of the finest displays of Electrics is shown in the booth of the firm of Emerson and Orme, here are exhibited some of the finest models of electric and gasoline cars ever displayed in Washington. At night the display is particularly interesting.

The A. Loeffler exhibit has one of the largest displays of touring cars and auto trucks. They have on exhibition one of the new type four ton Speedwell trucks, which is equipped with some up-to-date features which make this ane of the most efficient for the business man to use. They also show the Commerce delivery wagons.

The Miller Company exhibit is essentially a fine one and include some model cars turned out by the well-known Stutz factory.

Some splendid and very handsome touring cars are shown in the exhibit of the Cole cars which are well-known and displayed by G. R. Cowie.

The Michigan line is well represented and ably managed by the president of the show, Mr. Probey. There are some splendid new style cars on exhibit and they are good lookers too.

This show will be a treat to any one who takes an interest in automobiles and it should be visited by every one who can get to see the big display of cars. It is one of the opportunities to make a comparison between the best makes on display and also to inspect the latest appliances and accessories.

In the display of I. B. Donohue supplies of all kinds are shown in an effective manner and the visitor who owns a car will do well to investigate the merits of the various accessories shown at the exhibit.

The Marine Band concert which is one of the features of the show is proving very popular with the lover of music, plenty of seats are provided for those who wish to listen to the music in comfort, and at he same time view the interesting exhibits which are spread out before the eye.

There is a complete change of the musical programme each afternoon and evening The band under the direction of Lieut. William H. Santelmann it is assured the concerts are a great attraction and will strike the popular fancy.

Thursday will be society night at the Auto show and it is expected that some unusual features will be provided by the entertainment committee in charge of the show.

J. T. Rose, manager of the Washington Branch of the Invader Oil Company, is expecting some big business for Invader Oil as soon as this oil becomes known among users. Mr. Rose's demonstration exhibit is at the I. T. Donohoe's's booth.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Columbia Construction Company, Incorporated, will be held at the office of Gardner L. Boothe, Esq., Alexandria National Bank Building, Alexandria, Va., on Monday, February 10, 1913, at 2 o'clock P. M.
